

MISSOURI'S GREATEST STORE. Barr's Great Store Suggests a Happy Combination of Spring Beauty and Spring Economy.

The store is full of beautiful new goods, so carefully bought that it is actually economy to purchase them early in the season. We quote sufficient to-day to illustrate this assertion, but only a visit will enable you to realize how great and various are the stocks, and yet how inexpensive.

Wash Fabrics.

No description of the variety and beauty of these cotton dress textiles that are yet the most beautiful and least costly of summer gown materials. The variety is infinite—no taste that cannot be satisfied, however exacting.

We quote a few prices on staple goods, but only a visit to the department will give you any idea of the pretty novelties the season has brought.

27-inch fine Dress Ginghams, in checks, plaids and stripes of blue, pink and lavender; 12c yard.
36-inch Barr's celebrated Printed English Long Cloth, in spots, lines and stripes of black, blue and red on white; 15c yard.
36-inch Percales in light and dark colors, shown for the first time; 12½c yard.
Just received, a handsome line of Mercerized Foulards in all the new shades; 35c and 50c yard.
A nobby line of Linen Shirting Madras, manufactured expressly for Wm. Barr D. G. Co.; 60c, 65c and 65c yard.
Finest line of Embroidered Swiss Muslin in city, 23 and 44 inches wide, in all the leading colors of the season; ranging in price from 50c to $2.25 yard.
Sea Island Dimities in navy, cadet, pink, sky, yellow, lavender and white grounds, printed in all new stripes and figures; 15c yard.

Household Linens.

This great department of Barr's offers especial inducements for the purchase of Towels and Towelings this week. The prices are very low and will justify the purchase of a full supply of these always needed goods.
